

Your Time! Your Life!

October-November
(mid-SEM 1)

Start of Non-JUPAS
Keep everything going

- revisions
- projects and assignments
- (if applicable) revision on AL/DSE

February-May
(2nd SEM)

Get back to study
mood ASAP

September
(early-SEM 1)

Add-Drop Period
After ADP

- Prepare for the holidays
- Get to know your friends
- Get organized
- Get a part-time job & join societies (Don't miss out on the party)
- Get a representative
- Have "Study Week"
- Plan your time to study
- Review & evaluate your time & effort
- Join University Open Day

December
(late-SEM 1)

Finish off Projects

- do not mess up in the presentations
- do not miss the remaining lectures
- do not leave problems unsolved
- Presentation Rehearsal (Practice Makes Perfect!)

Final Examinations

January (short SEM-break)

- Relax yourself
- Resume Part-time
- Take IELTS
- Prepare for Non-JUPAS interview(s)

June-August
(Long SEM break)

1. Relax
 - Join study tour (if affordable)
2. Find a summer job
 - Better relating to Non-JUPAS choice
3. Learn something new (CEF)
4. Get notes from year 2 students
OR Prepare for your new U-life :)

September (early-SEM 1)

Add-Drop Period After ADP

- Prepare for the lectures
- Get to know more friends
- Join programmes
- Get a part-time job & join societies
(for self-disciplined person)
 - gain experience
 - have "busy feeling"
- Plan your own schedule
 - evenly distribute your time & effort
- Join University Open Day

Add-drop Period

Plan your timetable according to:-

- number of project-oriented subjects
- strengths and weaknesses

You can also try:-

- to "sit in" more lectures
- to match with friends

Tips for Timetabling

- Remember the timetabling rules (e.g. at most 3 consecutive lectures)
- Consider home-school distance
 - near: less day-offs
 - far & self-disciplined people: more day-offs
- Take more 8:30a.m. lectures
- Put day-offs away from Mon/Fri

ATLET ADF

- Prepare for the lectures
- Get to know more friends
- Join programmes
- Get a part-time job & join societies
(for self-disciplined person)
 - gain experience
 - have "busy feeling"
- Plan your own schedule
 - evenly distribute your time & effort
- Join University Open Day

October-November (mid-SEM 1)

Start of Non-JUPAS

Keep everything going

- revisions
- projects and assignments
- (if applicable) revision on AL/DSE

Start of Non- JUPAS

- Check Submission Deadline for different Universities
- Prepare personal statement(s)
- Ask for reference letter(s)
- Attend Non-JUPAS Talks
- Check Admission Record
(KEC 10/F or IEC 20/F or FTC 22/F)

December (late-SEM 1)

Finish off Projects

- do not mess up in the presentations
- do not miss the remaining lectures
- do not leave problems unsolved
- Presentation Rehearsal (Practice Makes Perfect!!)

Final Examinations

Exam period

Sleep early or overnight?

Depends on:-

- nature of subject
(essay-type VS math-based)
- exam time (am VS pm)

How to revise?

fect!!)

January (short SEM-break)

- Relax yourself
- Resume Part-time
- Take IELTS
- Prepare for Non-JUPAS
interview(s)

February-May (2nd SEM)

Get back to  study
mood ASAP

Be prepare

- to have Non-JUPAS news (talk to lecturers/ SDCS)
- to choose year 2 theme
- for your AL/DSE retake (if applicable)

June-August (Long SEM break)

1. Relax

- Join study tour (if affordable)

2. Find a summer job

- Better relating to Non-JUPAS choice

3. Learn something new (CEF)

4. Get notes from year 2 students

OR Prepare for your new U-life :)